PRESENTING
MINERVA
HIGH SCHOOL

Foreword

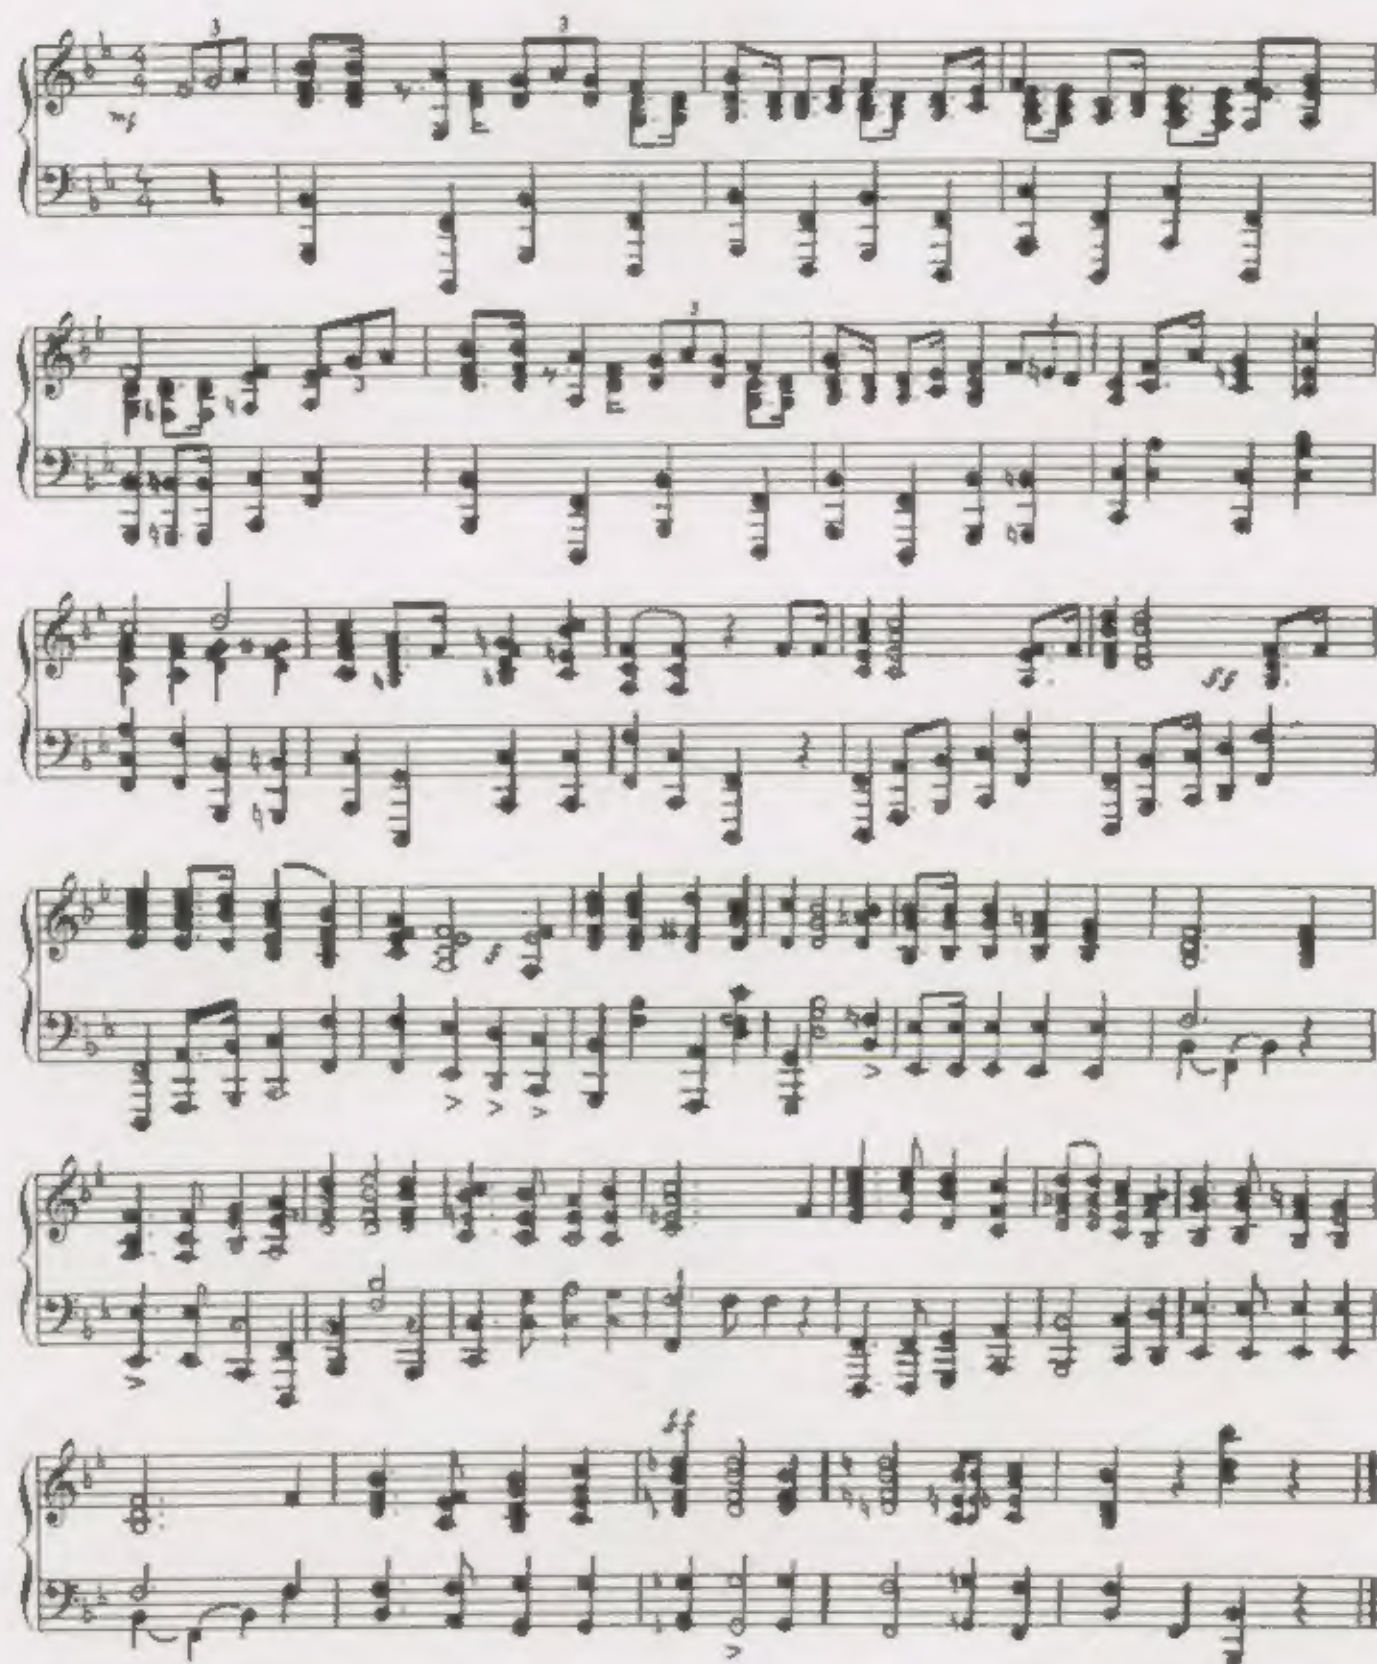

The Crescent staff of 1950 is proud to present The Minerva High School Televised Talent Show, as announced by the MHS Lion and recorded by the Crescent Bookworm.

An array of talent in administration, faculty, classes, sports, and activities is seen throughout the telecast.

The administrators and teachers, acting as scouts, have given direction to all students so that they might be conditioned for the screen of life by their performances over the MHS channel.

It is assured that the memories inspired by this book will increase in value with the years, as the screen of 1949-50 grows dim with time.

Theme Song of the Crescent Television Show

Come all along and sing we a song
Of our Minerva High,
Oh, worthy art thou of fame.
Where age and youth have sought the truth,
And as the years roll by,
Beloved is thy glorious name,
Beloved is thy glorious name.

Ye colors gay, ye crimson and gray,
Kissed by the gentle winds,
In victory floats on high.
And should thy form wrestle with storm,
And then the foe will find,
We'll conquer for thee, or die,
We'll conquer for thee, or die.

Chorus:

Oh! Minerva! Oh! Minerva!
Hail to thee, our dear old high school!
Oh! Our Minerva High School,
Our Alma Mater dear,
For thee we'll ever cherish,
For thee we'll ever cheer.
Oh! may we ever prosper;
Our hearts' best wish to thee
Oh! our Minerva High School,
Is for prosperity.

MR. CHARLES CATANESE

Luck to you in the future. C.C.

Dedication

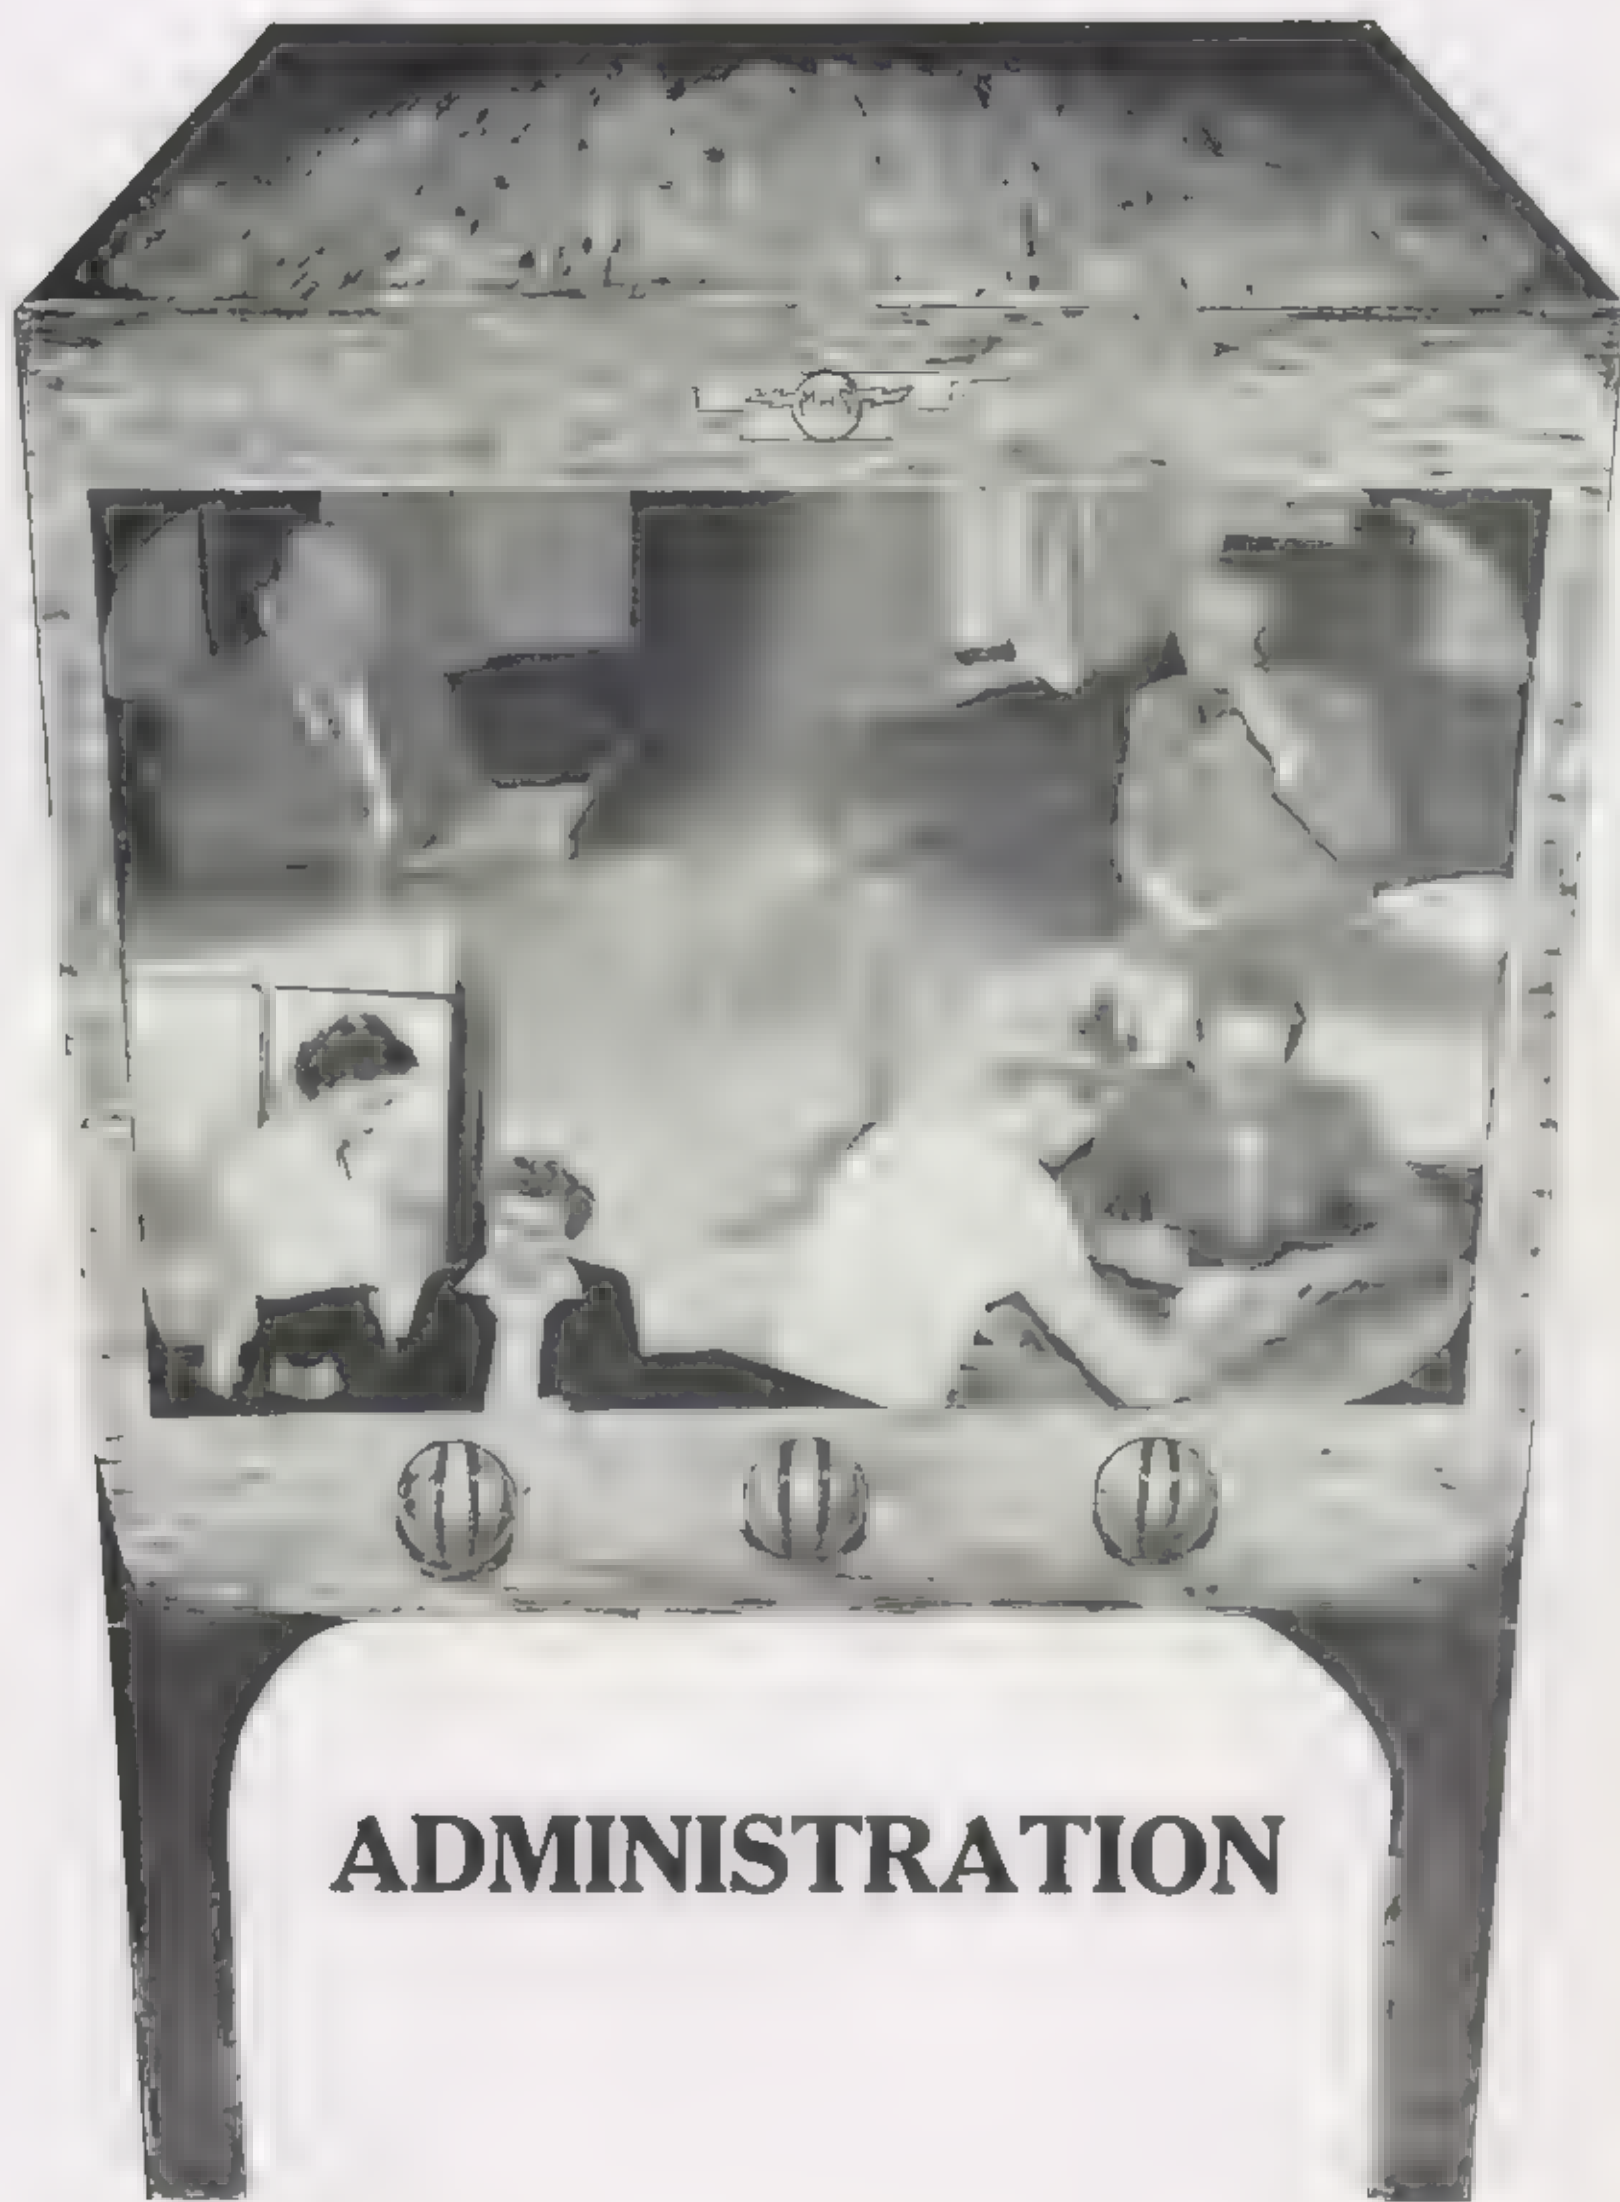

To our friend and constant adviser, Mr. Charles Catanese, we, the class of 1950, dedicate our Crescent.

With the utmost care and patience, he has guided us through our last two years of high school, so that we face the "screen" of life with clear "vision."

By widely advertising the value of education, our administration has aided and encouraged the talent who appear in our televised show.

Board of Education

The Minerva Exempted Village Board of Education extends congratulations and best wishes to the members of the graduating class of 1950.

In this Atomic age it is our hope that you will accept the responsibility of leadership and strive to maintain peace among all the nations of the world.

We sincerely wish you security and success in your future endeavors whatever they may be.

Congratulations, Class of 1950, upon the completion of your course of study. Your scholastic, social, and athletic attainments are now mentally televised upon the screen of time. These accomplishments have prepared you for successful living in a society waiting to welcome you.

H. P. Wisman

Secretary

We, of the senior class, take this opportunity to express our sincere appreciation to Miss Virginia Ricketts for her efficient management of the school office.

An alumna of the school, she knows the things nearest the hearts of the students, and her kindness in office procedure has helped solve many problems.

The Professionals' . . . History

One-hundred and sixteen members of the Class of '50 first entered our television broadcasts in September of '46. We chose Mary Palmer as our star leader with Miss Dorothy Beckman directing the year's performance. A Special St. Patrick's Day setting was chosen for our class party held in the high school auditorium.

Entering our second year and being more experienced in this field, our most important scene took place February 20 at Cuthrie's rink where an evening of skating was enjoyed. Delmar Smith was elected to undertake the leadership with the able guidance of Miss Ruth Nicholson.

During our third and fourth years of broadcasting, the responsibility of leadership was placed on the shoulders of Merle Coy with Mr. Charles Catanese as the sponsor.

All of us portrayed the part of salesmen as we tried to build the class treasury. Decals, emblems, and name plates were our merchandise in our junior year, along with manning the eats' stand during all home games. A bake sale was first on the money-making list during our senior year. Later, anyone could hear us extolling the virtues of our fine Christmas cards.

To display our talent as juniors, a three-act comedy entitled "A Young Man's Fancy" was presented on December 4 under the direction of Mr. Franklin Arndt. Other social events of the year were the "Corn Shock Shuffle", "Lion's Ball" and the "Heart Beat" dance. In keeping with the one-hundredth centennial celebration of the California gold rush, a theme of "Gold For The Forty-niners" was carried out for the junior-senior banquet and prom on May 20.

Only seventy-eight of the original show cast completed the television broadcasts. These sponsored such dances as the "Floating Frolic" and "Holly Hop". Our second big production was "We Shook the Family Tree", a three-act comedy. A never-to-be-forgotten party was the one Merle Coy invited the entire class to attend, in celebration of the play's success. About 40 seniors gathered at Merle's home for a square dance in the barn, a treasure hunt that seemingly covered miles, and games and refreshments to close the evening's fun.

Reaching the end of our career in this field, the class of '50 presented a senior assembly to those who will follow our footsteps in later years. We were the guests of our understudies, the class of '51, at the junior-senior banquet and prom on May 26.

Having attained a position of high standing, we are prepared to move on to bigger and better performances with our commencement and graduation June 2.

We were an excited group as we boarded a school bus, June 3, and began our senior trip to Washington, D. C. For three days we were full-fledged sight-seers and greatly enjoyed the role.

We still shall always hold these past four years as the best and most enjoyable years of our lives and shall go forth with the experiences and knowledge we have learned thus far to help us play our roles in life.

1949's Prom Trotters

As juniors, the class of '50 honored last year's seniors with the annual May banquet and prom, centering the theme upon the California gold rush of 1849.

Transforming the gym into the valley of the forty-niners required a week of earnest but rewarding work. Fir trees, a campfire, the gold mine, a center rock garden, and an authentic covered wagon, complete with a frontiersman and his wife, all lent to the air of reality.

Underclassmen served the chicken loaf banquet after which Mr. Franklin Arndt, serving as toastmaster, "emceed" the program. A forty-niners' quartet rendered several selections. Miss Mildred Dager entertained with lively music on her marimba, and Mr. Dan Myers, of Mount Union College, proved himself an able comedian as well as magician. Phil Mason's orchestra furnished music for dancing.

Busy chairmen who planned and directed the details were Pat DeWalt, banquet; Roland Smith, program and orchestra; Janice McNary, decorations; Richard Glass, table decorations; and Dorothy Whiteleather, invitations.

Beauty Reigns in '49

Presented before an overflowing crowd on Minerva High's campus, 1949's May Day festivities were rated "best yet" by the hundreds who witnessed "The Return of the 49ers".

Students elected Pat Robbins May Queen and Martha Hawkins and Arden Steffen, senior attendants from the class of '49. This year's seniors represented as junior attendants on the court were Carol Glasser, Gloria Baker, Mary Palmer and Janice McNary.

Combined efforts of the band, chorus and other MHS talent, under the direction of Mrs. Edward Holler, produced the following review:

Chapter I	49'ers Return
	Cowboy Ballads
	Indian Love Call
Chapter II	Railroad Dance
Chapter III	Cotton Pickers
Chapter IV	Gay Nineties
Chapter V	First World War
Chapter VI	Vaudeville

Junior History

Selecting Paul Davis to direct their talent, these 85 juniors performed to an appreciative audience of underclassmen and a critical senior body. Advising and guiding her 'prodigies' for the second year, was Miss Helen Willett, with the assistance of Mr. Donald Cassidy during the last semester.

With an eye on their financial needs, the Class of '51 took charge of the "eats stand" at both football and basketball games. Here, the more talented took the job of "hawkers" to better the sale of pop, hot dogs, pop corn, or candy.

October 28 marked the celebration of All Hallo's Eve at the junior's first dance. Corn shocks, pumpkins and a huge witch suspended from the ceiling provided the setting for the "Punkin Face Ball". Ted Kuhn's Orchestra played for dancing.

Bobby Quinn's Orchestra furnished music for the class's second dance. November 26. "The Touchdown Turkey Trot", honoring the football players, Queen and court, was held at the grade school building.

Ruby or plain gold rings became the fashion of the juniors when their long awaited class rings arrived at the close of the first semester.

"Cupid's Whirl", sponsored by the juniors, aided the school's celebration of St. Valentine's Day.

Mystery invaded the auditorium, April 28-29 when the Class of '51 staged their first play, "Fog Island". Mr. Franklin E. Arndt directed.

Feting the graduating seniors, the juniors closed the year's social events May 26 with the annual junior-senior banquet and prom. Secret meetings, plans, and several days of decorating, work in advance of the date, resulted in a memorable evening enjoyed by the near 200 who attended.

Sophomore History

Leaving the traditionally assigned "freshman balcony" these sophomores moved downstairs into the auditorium to better watch and learn from the productions of the juniors and seniors. Mr. Donald Cassidy became the class's new adviser, while Dave Blanc was elected to lead the class members.

Sophomore boys began the year's activities, as sophomore boys do every year. Wielding lipstick and wearing a devilish look, the boys spent a day properly instructing and initiating the freshmen boys into life at MHS.

Mr. Cassidy's homeroom, No. 1, distinguished itself when these sophomores won the 100' homeroom drive in the Crescent sale.

Rather green and susceptible to upper-classmen's jokes, 129 freshmen entered MHS, September 8.

Classrooms were not always easily found, the traffic system was slightly confusing, and schedules were sometimes beyond understanding, but the "freshies" soon fell into step behind the experienced sophomores and began to display the talent they possessed.

During the first two six weeks the freshmen topped the high school honor rolls, rating second in the third period.

Coached by Mr. Charles Catanese, the freshman basketball squad finished their season with eight wins and five losses. In Many were the boys who appeared in the 1949-50 sports show. As the rest of the student body watched and cheered, the football team appeared for the first time under the lights on Minerva's Memorial Field, and the basketball squad romped on the newly refinished gym floor.

Allen Bryan and Harry Householder were rated on the third Tri-County and Third All-County teams, respectively.

With a nucleus of only five returning lettermen to work with, the football coaches were faced with a rough schedule. Coach John Canfield was assisted by Charles Catanese, Houston Schlosser and Donald Cassidy. During the latter part of the season, assistant coach Catanese took over the job of head coach.

Minerva's Memorial Field, dedicated to local servicemen who gave their lives for this country in World War II, was completed in time for the opener with Boardman. The field is equipped with benches seating 1500, lights, a cinder track circling the field and fence about the area. A bond issue, passed in 1945, covered the cost.

Minerva 0 Boardman 65

Playing one of their toughest opponents in the opener on the MHS field, September 17, Minerva's inexperienced players were overwhelmed by the Boardman Spartans.

Minerva 0 Lisbon 20

Hosts to the Lisbon Blue Devils under the local lights, the Lions were again unable to win against overwhelming odds.

Minerva 0 Columbiana 40

Journeying to Columbiana for their third game of the season, Minerva's squad suffered its third defeat of the season.

Minerva 12

Sebring 27

Bryan scored two touchdowns within two minutes before the end of the second quarter to make the halftime score 13-12. However, the Sebring Trojans, playing on their own territory, spurred ahead to finish 27-12.

Minerva 6

Carrollton 34

Carrollton's Black and White scored the first touchdown of the game in the first quarter. During the second period, Hines carried the ball 34 yards to the Minerva 4 line. On the next play, Dietrich gained the yard or so for the first Minerva goal on the new field. The quarter ended in a 6-6 deadlock. Scoring four touchdowns in the next half, Carrollton journeyed home with a 36-6 victory.

Minerva 14

East Palestine 31

Bryan made the two Minerva touchdowns in the first half with Dysle and Dietrich tallying the extra points. The host Bulldogs, however, greatly outdistanced our gridders to emerge victorious.

Minerva 7

Newton Falls 31

Still on the road, the Lions next traveled to Newton Falls. Bryan ran 72 yards to score the first touchdown of the game. Dysle made the extra point. The Lions tied the game at the end of the half in a 7-7 tie. Not until the fourth quarter did Newton Falls display a passing attack which gained four touchdowns and Minerva's defeat.

Minerva 0

Malvern 14

Meeting on the snow-covered Minerva field, the Lions defeated the Malvern team 14-0. Dysle ran 66 yards in the last five minutes to score Minerva's lone tally.

Minerva 0

Louisville 73

The annual Armistice Day Classic was played in the afternoon on Louisville's field. The Tri-County League Champs resoundingly spanked the Lions and the reserves 73-0.

RESERVES

For the first time at MHS, a reserve football squad formed. Playing three games, the seconds were victorious over the Leetonin reserves and were defeated by the Lisbon and Augusta teams. Players gained experience which will later help the varsity squad.

Salineville proved a tough opener, but the Lions returned home with a close 44-41 win.

Carrollton was the next team to feel the Lions' claws when Minerva emerged with a 53-38 victory.

Home, but on the Grade School floor because of the refinishing of the high school court, the local five fell before Louisville 59-46.

On the road again, the Lions bowed to inferior East Canton, 30-25.

Playing one of their best games the Minervians held Canton Lincoln to a 45-35 victory. This game was the first on the newly refinished floor.

Suffering their fourth straight setback the Lions were vanquished by the visiting North Canton team, 47-37.

Breaking their losing streak, the Minerva eagles defeated the invading Lisbon five, 28-21, and gained their first victory in the tri-county league.

Losing to a strong Sebring foe, 46-39, the Lions were on an even-up basis in league standings.

Easily defeating Malvern, the Minervians recorded their fourth win, 76-44.

Starting on the road once more, the local team was humbled by the Columbiana Clippers, 53-39.

Losing their third league game to East Palestine, the Lions were conquered 53-39.

Leetonia was overpowered by the MHS squad, 17-36.

Again facing a superior Canton Lincoln team, Minerva lost, 40-30. The record now revealed 5 wins, 8 losses.

Gaining a fifty-fifty standing in the league and defeating one of MHS's greatest rivals, the Lions defeated Louisville 39-37 in the most exciting game of the season.

In the last league game of the schedule, Minerva was handed a loss by Boardman, 63-42.

Coming home to play the remaining games, the MHS eagles beat Middlebranch, 57-46.

Registering their ninth victory the Lions turned back Uhrichsville, 45-28.

Canton Central Catholic invaded the Lion's den and emerged victorious, 71-51.

Scoring 35 points, center Jim Sponseller led the local squad in a final victory over Carrollton, 70-58. Minerva's record was now evened, ten wins, ten losses.

Drawing a first round bye, Minerva faced Warren Harding in the NEOB tournament. Leading in the last minute of play, the Lions lost a heartbreaker, 49-48.

As We Heard Them . . .

Under the direction of Mr. Harold G. Koerber, the year 1950 shows a great improvement in the Minerva High School Band. Membership has rocketed from twenty-five in 1947 to seventy-five in 1950.

Present at every football game with the exception of Newton Falls, the band took the spotlight at half-times with shows of varied categories, ranging from the "Stairway to the Stars" theme at the Carrollton game, to the "Sweetheart of Minerva High" theme at the Malvern match. The "Stairway" theme, carried out in complete darkness with the exception of head and feet lights on every member, proved to be a breath-taking scene as the various maneuvers were executed.

The annual winter concert was held on February 24 after grueling sessions of night practices besides regular 9th period meets. The concert was given in the assembly in which band letters were presented to members who were in band four years. Lyres were given to members who attended two years of band.

Competing in the Northeastern Ohio District solo and ensemble contests on March 11, at Baldwin-Wallace University, were Charles Toalston and Gene Noling, drum soloists; and Homer Toalston, Ann Grunder, and Shirley Leyda, clarinet trio. Ratings of excellent, very good, and excellent were received, respectively.

Thirty-three students played in Carroll County Band Festival at Magnolia, Friday, March 31. After practicing all day, a concert was given in the evening along with several other bands.

The band marched in the Decoration Day parade at Minerva in the morning, and in the afternoon, at Moultrie.

Ann Grunder, Ann Boerner, clarinets; Ruth Heylmun, alto clarinet; Carol Smith, alto saxophone; and Joanne Knox, cornet, were selected to represent the Minerva high school band at the Annual High School Festival held at Mount Union College, April 15.

Orchestra furnished music for the intermission of the junior and senior plays. Music was also furnished for the processional and recessional at graduation.

The orchestra did not attend Kent in competition this year or give a concert as usual, since there have been too many other activities.

Pep Band, consisting of eighteen members and supplying marches and popular music during intermissions, was a main attraction at home basketball games. The group also played for the West Township Farmer's Institute at Bayard Grange.

Music Hath Charms

The activities of the Mixed Chorus, Boys' Glee Club, and Girls' Glee Club consisted of Christmas caroling, singing in assemblies, and participation in many activities of the school.

Accompanied by Nancy Ringle playing her ukelele, a novelty girls' quintet, consisting of Glenna Wagner, Nancy Ringle, Nancy Dowling, Eileen Kratz and Pat Smith was formed out of the Girls' Glee Club, and took part in assemblies throughout the year.

These choral groups took part in the annual May Day program. They also worked together for the annual Music Festival held May 5. These organizations were under the direction of music instructor Miss Mildred Dager.

Long to be remembered was the "Deep Purple Talent Show" presented in the Grade School Auditorium December 6. Many talented students were recognized on this program. Applauded to first place was Robert Betz, singing "Someday". Delores Young did an acrobatic dance to achieve second placing, and Barbara Cronin's imitation of Betty Hutton won third place. Wayne Scott was the program's "emcee".

Girls' Glee Club elected Glenna Wagner, president; Nancy Ringle, secretary-treasurer; and Nancy Dowling, reporter.

Officers in Mixed Chorus were Roland Smith, president; Shirley Crowl, secretary-treasurer; Mary Palmer, reporter.

"The Diary", bi-weekly publication of MHS's journalism department under the direction of Miss Frances Hazen, adviser, attempts to bring to the student subscribers the complete coverage of future and past news events, sports, editorials, various interviews, and different features.

Without credit toward graduation, the senior staff edited the paper for the first semester, enabling beginning journalists to gain knowledge before assuming staff responsibilities the second semester.

In order to raise money to back "The Diary" the journalism department sponsored 3 one-act plays, October 18, under the direction of Mr. Edward Arndt.

Affiliated with the National Scholastic Press Association, "The Diary" staff writers entered several national contests. The department also sent representatives to the annual Northeastern Ohio Scholastic Press Clinic held at Kent State University, April 22, having submitted entries in the various newspaper critical contests.

The local chapter of Quill and Scroll, national honorary society for high school journalists, inducted several members this year. Students who rank in the upper third of their class, complete a year's course in Journalism, and whose service on the staff merit them outstanding recognition, are eligible for membership.

Beating a new deadline proved to be an enjoyable feat, as the staff worked as one to produce an ever improved paper.

Crescent—Screen of School Life

We, the Crescent staff of 1950, have done our best toward presenting a clear vision" of the school year '49-50.

We should like to re-enact for you some of the scenes behind the screen.

Over in the corner is Janice McNary, script writer, pondering on new ideas and schemes. In another corner is Sondra Lantz, who as art editor is busily drawing her sketches. At the large table in the other end of the room is Richard Glass diligently working on layouts. Lending her feminine charms to the calendar is Pat DeWalt. In the activities section, Inez Favri is working on girls' organizations and Charles DePalmo on boys'. Slumped in a chair is Wayne Scott, sports editor, who is usually dreaming of sports. Completing a very efficient job on advertising is Irene Dickey and her assistants Beverly Hazen and Norma Brogan. Business Manager Mary Palmer can usually be found checking over sheaves of bills and adding columns of figures in a vain effort to make the books balance. Pounding the keys on the typewriter is Sara Loudon, typist.

Contacting the photographer, conferring with the printer, overseeing the layout, discussing problems with the adviser, and busy with Crescent plans in general is the harried editor, Dorothy Whiteleather.

Every effort has been made to pool the talent of these people to produce this book with full coverage of school life and personnel. So jealously did staff members guard their secret of the theme and their activities in the publication of the book that the junior editor, Ann Boerner, is invisible.

Fellowship among Jills

One of the busiest clubs in the school, the Y-Teens, opened their year's schedule with a recognition service for new members, for which club members' mothers, ladies of the faculty, wives of the men of the faculty and board members were guests.

Y-Teens, as members of the World's YWCA, joined other Y-Teens in observing World Fellowship Week, November 13-19. Chocolate bars were donated and sent for overseas Christmas packages.

Early in the year, local Y-Teens donated baked goods which were sold for profit by the club.

Introducing the penny carnival to MHS, the Y-Teens' many and varied booths "opened for business" on October 22. Fortune telling, a kiss booth, photo booth, balloon "busting", and other booths occupied the Y-Teens.

Club members also assisted in selling Forget-Me-Nots to aid disabled veterans.

Through all of their activities, the Y-Teens carry out their purpose which is to promote friendliness and service.

A skating party to which the Hi-Y was invited, also highlighted the fall activities, November 23.

The Hi-Y, in turn, invited the Y-Teens to a Christmas party in the band room, December 17. Round and square dancing about the large Christmas tree, was enjoyed by the group.

During the week before Christmas, the club's wishing candle burned brightly for all who placed a penny near it and made a wish. Cupcakes were sold, and the proceeds from these two projects were used to help send delegates to Y-Teen camp.

The annual Christmas assembly was planned by the Y-Teens. A film, based on the life of Christ, was shown.

A candy sale was sponsored on February 14. The Y-Teens also had charge of the Easter Assembly.

Observance of Ohio District Y-Teen Week began on February 19. A club box packed with soap, needles, handkerchiefs, etc., was sent to another Y-Teen Club in Finland. Sondra Lantz and her publicity committee compiled a scrap book with pictures and news of the local club for inclusion in the box.

On Wednesday of this week, a special assembly was planned by the Y-Teens. Barbara Kenny was the announcer for the program based on the principle of human rights.

Y-Teens' mothers were honored at a tea given by the club, May 15.

Dale Campbell and Merle Coy attended the State FFA Camp at Leesville, in August.

Five out of a possible eleven first places were captured by the local FFA Chapter in the poultry exhibition at the State Fair in September.

Dale Campbell's steer was selected Grand Champion at the Stark County Fair in FFA competition.

Twenty new members were initiated into the club in October. Mr. Charles Peters and Dr. Ralph A. Bates were given honorary membership. A joint hayride with the FFA was held.

In December, a pest hunt contest was organized. Kenneth Zwick placed first; Allen Summers, second.

Coached by Dick Dye, the FFA basketball team fell to Dalton in the semifinals of district competition.

For the fourth consecutive year the club's parliamentarians have achieved gold rating. Competing with nine other chapters, Minerva traveled to Dalton, March 10, for the parliamentary procedure contest.

Ten thousand trees were planted in April by members for a reforestation project.

The District Dairy judging contest was entered in June by several future farmers.

As a kick-off to the year's activities of the Girls' Athletic Association, all girls interested in joining were invited to a wiener roast, after school, September 22.

One of the most laugh-filled rallies of the year occurred when GAA members played a mock Malvern-Minerva battle for the Malvern game rally, attired in football uniforms complete with padding. The "Lions" emerged victorious 7-6. GAA members selected a football king and court from MHS's team. Crowned at halftime of the mock game was King Allen Bryan. Burleigh Felger, senior; Dick Dysle, junior; Walter Miller, sophomore; and Rex Kiser, freshman, were his attendants.

GAA members turned out for "GAA Night" at the Louisville game, December 10.

Twenty children from Fairmount Children's Home were entertained at the Christmas party, December 15. The student body contributed to buy presents which Santa Claus (Wayne Scott) presented to them.

Members and their guests traveled to the Canton YMCA for a swimming party, February 25.

The GAA basketball team enjoyed a "Play Day" at East Canton, March 11. Minerva beat their hostesses 23-17, in the basketball game. The second game of their three scheduled games was played the following Saturday with Alliance.

Splitting into two teams, the GAA players next faced Louisville in two games after school, March 22.

Letters and numerals were presented to the girls who had earned the honor through participation in club sports.

The Yale-Harvard teams, composed of the best players, clashed in a finale to the girls' basketball season.

Fifteen members were initiated into the club, February 27. Wayne Scott led the candlelighted induction service after which Dick Youngen, of the Town and Country branch of the YMCA in Canton, gave a short address to the new members, welcoming them into the Hi-Y organization.

The local chapter participated in the newly-formed Stark County Hi-Y basketball league. Games, played through February and March, were held at the North Canton Community Building. Minerva won over Marlboro and Canton South Free, more while losing to East Canton, Canton South, and Louisville.

Club members enjoyed a county Hi-Y winning meet at the Canton YMCA, March 2. Several boys and their guests attended a Hi-Y dance at the YMCA the following Saturday. To finish the year, Hi-Y boys and their guests attended a dinner party in May.

Through these activities, the club strives to live up to and promote clean speech, clean sports, clean scholarship and clean living. Creating, maintaining, and extending high standards of Christian character throughout the school and community constitutes the purpose of this organization.

Membership in the National Honor Society is one of the greatest honors an upperclassman can attain.

Faculty members select students on the basis of the principles for which the organization stands — Scholarship, Leadership, Service, and Character.

Induction of seniors takes place during the first semester; juniors and seniors are initiated at the end of the second semester.

The four senior members began the year's program when they "tapped" new members in a surprise ceremony during a November assembly. Inductees suffered through a day of informal initiation. Later, a formal ceremony was held before other honor students.

One of the projects of the society was the renewing of name tags for classroom doors. Members assisted the every day living boys in producing a skit on courtesy for Courtesy Week, the first of April. Lists of "do's and don'ts" in courtesy were composed and distributed to the students.

Two local members took the National Honor Society Scholarship test in the spring. The annual party for honor students from all classes was held.

Graduating seniors who belong to the society wore gold tassels on their caps.

Represented nationally as Troupe No. 197, the local members of the Thespians were initiated into this honorary society on a basis of work done on or about the stage.

Purpose of the Thespian organization is to further the dramatic interest of students who have ability in acting and working on the stage. New members were inducted in the spring.

THREE ONE-ACT PLAYS

Three one-act plays, "Ringing in the Groom", "Submerged", and "Wednesday Midnight", were staged October 18 under the sponsorship of the journalism department. Mr. Franklin E. Arndt directed.

"Submerged," a tragedy, takes place in a sunken submarine and depicts the manner in which one man sacrifices his life for the safety of the other five men. Homer Rininger, Orlo Freshly, Jack Draper, James Sponseller, Roland Smith, and Gene Hiner were featured in the all-male cast.

"Ringing in the Groom," a comedy, told how Grandmother (Barbara Kennedy) helps her nephew (Mac Whitacre) overthrow the family bonds and marry his fiancée (Janice McNary). Orlo Freshly, Beve Larson, Shela Haines, Nancy Lee, and Virginia Beutler made up the rest of the cast.

Joanne Knox starred in the mystery, "Wednesday Midnight," whose criminal was revealed by the detective, played by Wayne Scott. The remaining cast consisted of Inez Favri, Pat DeWalt, Bob Deck, Nancy Patmore, Mac Whitacre, and Glen Fiedler.

A Good Play . . . A Good Cast

"We Shook the Family Tree" was the senior class play, staged November 18 and 19, under the direction of Mr. Franklin Arndt.

Getting into the cast meant long hours and extra work, but it promised so much fun that 30 seniors tried out for it. Twelve were chosen. These dozen students started practicing a month before the play; after school or for long hours in the evening a harried Mr. Arndt could be found directing a sometimes eager, sometimes tired and nervous cast.

The end result was a lively three-act comedy, with almost perfect performances both nights.

Mystery . . Suspense . . The Juniors' Play

"Fog Island," a three-act mystery by E. Clayton McCarty, was presented by the junior class April 28 and 29. The scene was laid in the living room of a mansion on a lonely, fog enshrouded island off the coast of California.

Jerry Martin, a young scientist from Los Alamos, thinking himself to be the guest of a friend on the desolate island, encounters instead two phony caretakers, the Williamses, and the malignant overlord, Brock, who plans to wrest from Jerry some secrets regarding atomic energy.

A group of young ladies with their teacher, from a summer drama camp, crossed the channel at low tide and became stranded on the island. Sheriff Doolittle finds the party and brings the girls into the house to await dawn and low tide.

Jerry is obliged to play the host, always closely guarded. He recognizes Priscilla, whom he had known well in college, but pretends not to. A battle ensues as he tries stealthily to warn Priscilla and her girls of the danger. The girls unconsciously make matters worse and crisis follows crisis until the final showdown, which is as unexpected and as nerve-tingling as anyone can find in a play.

Football Team's Choice

Chosen by members of the football team, this year's football queen and court were honored at the halftime of the Minerva-Malvern meet, Nov. 4, the last home game of the season.

As the band marched into the formation of a clock, playing "Now Is the Hour", then a heart, and finally a crown, as pictured on page 71, bandmaster Harold Koerber announced the names of the chosen girls.

The football king and court, selected by the GAA from the team, presented mum corsages to the girls.

Mary Palmer was crowned queen by King Allen Bryan and football captain Roland Smith. Burleigh Felger and Pat DeWalt, attendants on the two courts, were the other two seniors represented. JoAnne Whitacre and Dick Dyle were junior attendants; Twila Davis and Walter Miller, sophomores; and Shirley Winrod and Rex Kiser, freshmen.

"The Touchdown Turkey Trot," annual football dance sponsored by the junior class, was given in honor of the football team, queen and court.

Sweethearts of Minerva High

Entering the festival scene to the strains of "Pomp and Circumstance", the 1950 May Queen and court were honored by the entire school on this annual MHS holiday, May 3.

Mary Palmer reigned as Queen when Carol Glasser, Goddess of Minerva, placed the traditional crown of roses upon her head. Gloria Baker, Pat DeWalt, seniors: Donna Manfull, Myrl Carson, JoAnne Whitacre and Lee Hall, juniors, completed the group which was selected by popular vote of the student body.

A panorama covering every month of the year entertained the honorary court as well as a large crowd of townspeople. Talent of the band, choral groups, and other students, under the direction of Mrs. Edward Holler, carried out the theme as the year's calendar was unfolded.

The court then adjourned to the athletic field where the junior and senior boys contested for field day honors in various races, broad jumps, high jumps, throwing, and the climactic tug of war across Little Sandy Creek.

Calendar

Oct. 3—Tonight the Y-Teens started off their club year by having a formal initiation. After the meeting a lunch was served . . . good, too! Shown in the pictures are (1) the Y-Teens and (2) the officers who are Mary Palmer, secretary; Dorothy Whiteleather, president; Beverly Hazen, vice president; and Ann Boerner, treasurer.

Oct. 6, 7—The seniors had their pictures taken today. Everyone really looked sharp.

Oct. 8—The class of '50 started the social activities this year by sponsoring the first dance, "The Floating Frolic." The decorating committee is still dizzy from blowing up so many balloons.

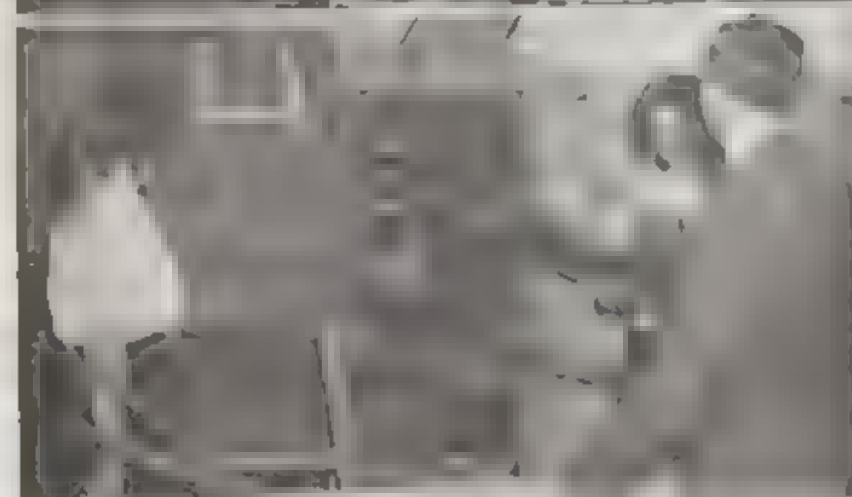

Oct. 11, 12, 13—Now it's the juniors' turn to look pretty. "Look at the birdie and say 'Cheeeeese'!!!"

Oct. 14—The band really looked nice, tonight at the Carrollton game. They marched with lights on their caps and feet while the field was darkened. Hard practice made the show perfect.

Oct. 16—Six weeks tests today. Gee, how the time flies! Also the journalism department put on 3 one-act plays, "Ringing in the Groom," "Submerged," and "Wednesday Midnight."

Oct. 19, 20—Everyone has been a bit stage-struck these two days . . . try-outs for the senior play.

Oct. 22—The Y-Teens had a great variety of concessions at their Penny Carnival tonight. At left (3) Shirley Winrod is buying a popcorn ball from Thelma Haines. (4) Mr. Weir is seen throwing darts at the balloons in the booth of Norma Brogan and Sondra Lantz. (5) Nancy Patmore, gypsy fortune teller of the night, is revealing the future to Rena Wright.

Oct. 28—Ted Kuhns' orchestra played for the second dance of the year, "The Pumpkin Face Ball." The class of '51 really "out-did" themselves on decorations for this dance. (1)

No school today; NEOTA meeting attended by teachers.

Oct. 31—Basketball practice started today. The band participated in the annual community Hallowe'en parade in the evening.

Nov. 4—MHS had a laugh-filled rally for the Minerva-Malvern football game, tonight. Girls of the GAA, who had charge, donned football uniforms and played a mock game with Malvern, emerging victorious by a score of 7-6. One of the neatest plays of the game was the plunge play. The plunger was handled by Sondra Lantz (left, 2). The club also selected a football King and court. Allen Bryan has just been crowned in the picture (right, 2). He was attended by Burl LeFebvre, senior; Dick Dysle, junior; Walt Miller, sophomore; and Rex Kiser, freshman. Four members of the girls' team pinned corsages on the boys at halftime. At tonight's game the '49 grid squad crowned their football queen. (3) She is Mary Palmer, pretty, brown haired, brown eyed senior. Her majesty was attended by Pat DeWalt, senior; JoAnne Whitacre, junior; Twila Davis, sophomore; and Shirley Winrod, freshman. To top the day off, Mother Nature provided the first snow of the season.

Nov. 10—Big pep rally and bonfire tonight for the Louisville game, tomorrow. Miss Mowls was toastmistress. The band played and then there was a snake dance from the field to town and more cheering on the square.

Nov. 11—Aerial view of MHS (4) shows the band in practice for the halftime show at Louisville.

Nov. 18, 19—Senior play these two nights, "We Shook the Family Tree." Wonderful job, seniors. The first picture shows Merle Coy displaying his first long pants to his papa, Charles Knepper; Wayne Scott, the amazed host, and his girl friend, Barbara Kenney. The next picture shows the scene where the little girl, Marilyn Tschabold, is holding up the ribbon from Father's love letters to Mother (Wayne Scott and Pat DeWalt).

Nov. 23 School dismissed for two long, beautiful days of Thanksgiving vacation. Tonight the Y-Teens held a skating party at the local rink and invited the Hi-Y. Bruises should be all cleared up by the time school starts again.

Nov. 25—Mr. Schlosser introduced the basketball boys to the public tonight at the basketball clinic. The team got off to a good start by beating Augusta 57-37 in a scrimmage.

Nov. 26—Tonight, juniors sponsored the "Touchdown Turkey Trot" held in a well-decorated grade school gym. The football queen was formally crowned during intermission. Slippery floor but no casualties!

Dec. 1—The picture to the left (3) shows the home economics class demonstrating the correct way to serve tea. Wilma Robbins and Ruth Ann Wallace are shown whipping up a cake (right, 3).

Dec. 3.—The seniors had a class party at Merle Coy's house tonight. The evening started with a treasure hunt and the rest of the party was spent eating and square dancing. Wet feet prevailed, but even at that, the seniors who didn't come really missed a lot of fun.

Dec. 12—Football players received their letters tonight at the football banquet. Allen Bryan is seen holding his letter (he was named "Captain of the Year"), in the top picture at right. With him are Bup Kearick, coach of the Canton McKinley football team and speaker of the evening; Mr. Charles Catmose, coach of the Minerva team; and Dr. S. I. Weir, toastmaster for the banquet.

Dec. 13—Refinishing of the basketball floor is almost completed. Two more coats of finish and it's done.

Dec. 15—Twenty boys and girls from the Fairmount Home were entertained at a Christmas party by the CAA, tonight. Singing, stories, games, eats, and Santa Claus provided an evening of fun for both the big and little kids.

Dec. 17—The Hi-Y gave a party for the Y-Teens tonight in the band room. Couples are enjoying square dancing in the picture at right (2). A huge Christmas tree decorated the room.

Dec. 21—Today is the last day of school before Christmas vacation and seems every class is having a Christmas party. Today is also known as "Mistletoe Day." Bet there isn't a boy in school who doesn't have a sprig of it, or a girl who doesn't wish she'd get caught under it.

Dec. 23—Tonight the big annual Christmas dance was sponsored by the seniors. Called the "Holly Hop," the dance had a very picturesque setting. It typified an outdoor scene with pine trees, old log fences and snow (4).

Jan. 3—Back to the old grind!

Jan. 6—Those long awaited friendship pictures arrived this afternoon. Everyone was trading the rest of the day.

Jan. 10—Excitement and suspense filled the school this afternoon when nominations were made for the May Queen and court.

Jan. 13—Friday the 13th and government term papers are due—could that mean something?

Jan. 16—There ought to be a petition started around this school to have bottles of "Air-wick" put in the chemistry laboratory. The petition should also state that the ventilators in the home ec. lab should be turned off when the classes are cooking. Those delicious odors just penetrate the whole school and have everybody dying of starvation before the morning is over. Home economics classes are seen creating those smells at left (right, 3 and 4).

Jan. 18—Because of several basketball defeats, Mr. Schlosser is making the first string varsity carry a basketball with them every place they go—to class, at home, to eat and to bed. How do you manage on dates, boys? Mr. S. thinks this will make them basketball conscious. (How could it fail?) Pictured at top, left to right, are Lester McCully, his basketball, and blackboard work. Don Cunningham finds his ball somewhat in the way during every day living class. Dick Dysle faces the same problem in farm shop.

Jan. 20—National Honor Society initiated today (2).

Jan. 26, 27—Those inevitable days are here, again—exams. Relaxing after their exam is Miss Mowls' Spanish I class (left, 3).

Jan. 27—Began intramural tournament today. Pictured at bottom, left, are the school champs, the senior basketball squad, Campbell, DePalmo, Cunningham, Sponseller, and Zoldan.

Feb. 6—The Everyday Living boys put on a skit for the beginning of "Courtesy Week".

Feb. 11—Juniors' "Cupid's Whirl" tonight.

Feb. 15—Hallelujah quartette entertained in an assembly.

Feb. 24—Y-Teens' assembly for "Brotherhood Week" today. Band concert this evening.

March 3—Special assembly announcing Virginia Beutler as the 1950 delegate to Girls' State. Band letters were given out.

March 25—Senior square dance tonight.

March 30—Girls' Yale-Harvard game tonight. Harvard won, 34-27. The teams are pictured at top.

March 31—Band traveled to Magnolia. The following day, April 1, a rating of "excellent" was received at Kent University.

April 4—Science classes took a field trip to the Timken factory in Canton.

April 6—Y-Teen Easter assembly. Mr. Canfield is shown (3) singing "The Lord's Prayer." Rev. Stanage A. Scott gave the Easter assembly address (4).

April 14—Choral students visit Cleveland to see the opera "Aida."

April 15—Mount Union Music Festival. Many MHS students took part.

April 28-29—Junior play, "Fog Island".

May 3—Annual May Day festivities invade Minerva high.

May 5—The MHS and MGS choral groups presented their festival this evening.

May 6—16 took final District State Scholarship Tests at Akron U.

May 19—Senior assembly today.

May 26—Junior-senior prom this evening. Beautiful, juniors.

May 28—Baccalaureate tonight.

June 2—Commencement tonight, and it's farewell to MHS.

As we near the end of our televised production we must add a good word for the support of the advertisers, without whose backing this show would not have been possible.

The closing scene on the opposite page gives an aerial view of Market Street, the business section of Minerva.
